

Kalani Staudacher

EDUCATION

University of Florida

(Transfer) Aug 2024- Expected Graduation 2027

Bachelor of the Arts, Majoring in Linguistics

University of Southern California

Aug 2023 - May 2024

- Dornsife Deans List Fall 2023 & Spring 2024
- Thematic Honors Program

WORK EXPERIENCE

University of Florida Performing Arts

Event Staff/Stagehand | Sep 2024 - Present

- Primarily work as event staff at the Curtis M. Phillip Center. Responsibilities include event setup and clean up, greeting guests, ticket scanning, and security.

Bear Paddle Swim School

Swim Instructor | May 2024 - Aug 2024

- Worked with groups of children to instill a love of water and swimming skills in a fast-paced environment

Pet Butler

Pet Care Professional | June 2024 - Aug 2024

- Petsat for dogs while their owners were away. This job required a high level of independence under minimal supervision. Responsibilities included feeding dogs, giving medication, cleaning up after pets, and entertaining dogs.

TRAITS

- Inquisitive and self-motivated to learn
- Analytical
- Conscientious
- Positive and Engaging Attitude
- Creative

SKILLS

- Experienced in use of Adobe Suite Photoshop
- Comfortable with Python, Pytorch, NLTK, Javascript, HTML, CSS, and basic principles of Machine Learning

AWARDS

- Illinois Global Scholar (2023)
  - For research conducted on agriculture and mental health
- EarthX Eco Art Competition Finalist (2022)
- REALM First Class (2023)
  - Was editor-in-chief of Naperville Central High School's The Icarian when the literary magazine was awarded a REALM (Recognizing Excellence in Art and Literary Magazines) First Class.

ACTIVITIES

- Lavender Productions
  - Script Supervisor for "All That Remains"
- Florida Players
  - Assistant prop designer for production of Much Ado About Nothing
- USC Performing Arts Committee
  - Part of a team that organized creative student projects and displays